Home of NC State University, Raleigh blends the fun and excitement of a big city with the hospitality and charm of a small U.S. Southern town. Situated midway between the Blue Ridge Mountains and the Atlantic Ocean, the beach and the mountains are both a two to three hour drive away. Plus, with a climate that is mild year round, it's easy to see why Raleigh is consistently rated among the best places to live and work in the United States.

Largest state university in North Carolina, with a student population of over 35,000

4,800+ international students from more than 120 countries.

Comprehensive university globally recognized for science, technology, engineering and mathematics leadership.

THE UNIVERSITY

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Colleges and Faculties:
- Agriculture & Life Sciences
- Business Management
- Design
- Education
- Humanities & Social Sciences
- Natural Resources
- Sciences
- Textiles

Term Options:
- Academic Year: August-May
- Fall: August-December
- Spring: January-May
- Calendar Year: January - December

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

Home of NC State University, Raleigh blends the fun and excitement of a big city with the hospitality and charm of a small U.S. Southern town. Situated midway between the Blue Ridge Mountains and the Atlantic Ocean, the beach and the mountains are both a two to three hour drive away. Plus, with a climate that is mild year round, it's easy to see why Raleigh is consistently rated among the best places to live and work in the United States.

RESEARCH TRIANGLE PARK

North Carolina’s capital city is located in the heart of the state and minutes from the world-renowned Research Triangle Park (RTP), the largest research park in the world. Opportunities may be available for students looking to complete Academic Training/Internships, class projects, or corporation visits.
If you are interested in studying at NC State University, please contact your university’s Study Abroad Office for more information, application instructions, and deadlines.

CAMPUS LIFE
Life at NC State features a great balance of academic enrichment, campus social life, and recreational opportunities.

Exchange students can get involved with intramural sports teams, take fitness classes, and join any of the 700+ clubs and organizations, such as the Cultural Exchange Network. Students can also participate in the performing arts and take classes at the Craft Center.

“I had never lived in a dorm before and it is an experience that I will never forget. It was awesome.”
- Mitch Caitlyn, Fall ’11, University of Western Sydney

ACCOMMODATION
Exchange students can apply to live in on campus at NC State. They may also apply to live in a learning “village” community of students with share academic, personal, or lifestyle interests. Each village is unique and has its own application. Popular villages include Global Village, Arts Village, S.T.A.T.E. Village, and Eco Village.

Wolf Village, an on-campus apartment complex for NC State upper-classmen and graduate students, is also a great option for exchange students. Students who live off campus may arrange their own housing.

HOW TO APPLY
If you are interested in studying at NC State University, please contact your university’s Study Abroad Office for more information, application instructions, and deadlines.

SUPPORT
The Study Abroad Office (SAO) will be here to support and help students find their way. Students will be assigned a regional advisor and can sign up for a student mentor. This makes the transition to a new university easier.

MORE INFORMATION
http://studyabroad.ncsu.edu/incoming-exchange/